12. Property of Tenant: Tenant may, and at the expiration or earlier termination hereof shall, remove all furniture, equipment, and other personal property which Tenant shall have placed in the Premises, other than personal property or fixtures which revert to the Landlord as set forth in Paragraph 8 of this Lease. All such property, owned by Tenant, shall, during the term thereof, be at the risk of Tenant only, and Tenant shall be liable for any loss thereof or damage thereto resulting from any cause whatsoever; and each policy of insurance covering such property shall contain a standard waiver of subrogation endorsement. 14. Insurance Required:

(a) Tenant shall procure, and shall maintain in full force and effect at all times during the term of this Lease, at Tenant's expense insurance against loss or damage caused by fire or other casualty to Tenant's fixtures, machinery, equipment and other personal property located on or about the Premises.

(b) Tenant shall procure, and shall maintain in full force and effect at all times during the term of this Lease at Tenant's expense, comprehensive general public liability insurance with respect to the Premises, with a single limit of liability of at least $1,000,000.00 for injury to or death of persons or damage to property as a result of any negligence or act of Tenant, its agents, contractors, employees, invitees and guests.

(c) If the nature of Tenant's operation is such as to place any or all of its employees under the coverage of local worker's compensation or similar statutes, Tenant shall keep in force, at its expense, so long as this Lease remains in affect, worker's compensation or similar insurance affording statutory coverage and containing statutory limits.

(d) Promptly upon the issuance of such policies of insurance as required by subparagraphs (a) and (b), Tenant shall deliver a certificate of insurance respecting such policies to Landlord.

(e) Each insurance policy: (i) shall be issued by an insurer authorized under applicable law to issue the coverage provided by the policy and licensed in the State of South Carolina; (ii) shall be issued by an insurer reasonably satisfactory to Landlord with a Best's rating of at least "A"; and (iii) to the extent authorized by Tenant's insurer, shall contain a provision whereby the insurer permits Landlord, Owner and Tenant to waive all right of recovery against the other, and whereby the insurer itself waives any claims by way of subrogation against Landlord, Owner and Tenant. The parties hereby waive any and all rights of recovery, claim, action or cause of action against each other, their respective agents, officers and employees, for any loss or damage that may occur to the Premises and to all property, whether real, personal or mixed, located in or about the Premises, by reason of fire, the elements, or any other causes as are insured against under the terms of insurance policies of the type described in this paragraph for use in respect of the Premises regardless of cause or origin, including negligence of the parties hereto, their respective agents and employees.

15. Signs: Tenant shall be entitled to place or maintain on the Premises signs on the glass of any window or door reasonably necessary to identify its business to be conducted on the Premises. All plans for such signs and advertising matter shall be submitted to Landlord for approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall maintain such sign(s) in good condition and repair at all times and shall remove such sign(s) at the termination of this Lease.

16. Damage or Destruction. If the Garage, the Premises, or any part thereof, shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty to such a degree that the uses contemplated hereby are no longer possible without substantial hardship to any of the parties hereto, Tenant shall have no claim or interest in or to any award of damages for such damage or destruction, and, unless otherwise agreed in a writing signed by the Owner, the Landlord and the Tenant, this Lease shall terminate.

17. Condemnation. If the Garage, the Premises, or any part thereof, shall be taken by public or quasi-public authority under any power of eminent domain, Tenant shall have no claim or interest in or to any award of damages for such taking, and, at the election of the Owner, this Lease shall terminate.

~~18. Indemnity: Commencing on the date first shown above, and to the extent permitted by law, Tenant will indemnify Landlord and hold Landlord harmless from and against all claims, actions, liens, demands, expenses and judgments for loss, damage, or injury to property or person resulting or occurring by reason of or arising out of the use or occupancy of the Premises by Tenant. If Landlord, without fault on its part, is made a party to any litigation commenced by or against Tenant, Tenant agrees to protect and hold Landlord harmless, to the extent permitted by law, therefrom and to pay all costs, expenses and reasonable attorney fees incurred or paid by Landlord in connection with such litigation.~~ Can't Indemnify

19. Landlord's Entry: With reasonable prior notice to Tenant, Landlord and his representatives may enter the Premises or any portion thereof at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner to inspect or exhibit same, to comply with Landlord's obligations or exercise Landlord's rights under this Lease, or to make repairs or renovations required hereunder.

20. Events of Default by Tenant: Any one or more of the following events shall amount to an Event of Default or Default by Tenant under this Lease:

(b) Failure of Tenant to provide any certificate required hereunder within the time therein specified.

(c) Failure of the Tenant to observe and perform any covenant, condition or agreement in this Lease on the part of the Tenant to be observed or performed within thirty (30) days after written notice specifying such failure and requesting that it be cured given to the Tenant by the Landlord, unless the Landlord shall agree in writing to an extension of such time prior to its expiration, provided, however, if the failure is such that cannot be corrected within the applicable period, it shall not constitute an Event of Default if corrective action is instituted by Tenant within the applicable period and diligently pursued until the problem is corrected.

(d) The dissolution or liquidation of the Tenant or the filing by the Tenant of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or failure by the Tenant promptly to lift any execution, garnishment or attachment of such consequence as will impair the ability of the Tenant to carry on its operations at the Premises, or the commission by the Tenant of any act of bankruptcy, or adjudication of the Tenant as a bankrupt, or assignment by the Tenant for the benefit of its creditors, or the entry by the Tenant into an agreement of composition with its creditors, or the approval by a court of competent jurisdiction of a petition applicable to the Tenant in any proceeding for its reorganization instituted under the provision of the general Bankruptcy Act, as amended, or under any similar act in any domestic or foreign jurisdiction which may now be in effect or hereafter enacted.

21. Landlord's Remedies on Default: Whenever any Event of Default shall have happened and be subsisting, the Landlord may at its option take any one or all of the following remedial steps:

(a) The Landlord, without terminating this Lease, may (i) after proper judicial proceeding, exclude and remove the Tenant and all persons and contents from the Premises by force, summary proceedings, or otherwise, without being liable to Tenant therefor, and Tenant hereby expressly waives the service of any notice in writing of intention of Landlord to reenter or to institute legal proceedings to that end; (ii) reenter and take possession of the Premises; and (iii) sublease the Premises for the account of the Tenant, holding the Tenant liable for the difference in the rent and other amounts actually paid by such sublessee in such subleasing and other amounts payable by the Tenant hereunder, and Tenant shall remain liable for any damages sustained by Landlord, all reasonable costs, professional fees and expenses incurred by Landlord in leasing the Premises to another tenant, and in effecting collection of rentals from Tenant.

(b) The Landlord may take whatever action at law or in equity may appear necessary or desirable to collect the rent and other amounts then due and thereafter to become due or to enforce performance and observance of any obligation, agreement or covenant of the Tenant under this Lease, including utilization of all provisions of applicable laws respecting the speedy recovery of lands and tenements held over by Tenant and proceedings in forcible entry and detainer.

(c) Terminate this Lease.

No action taken pursuant to this Paragraph shall relieve the Tenant from the Tenant's obligations to pay rent, all of which shall survive any such action, and the Landlord may take whatever action at law or in equity as may appear necessary and desirable to collect the rent and other amounts then due and thereafter to become due and/or to enforce the performance and observance of any obligation, agreement or covenant of the Tenant hereunder.

22. Events of Default by Landlord: Any one or more of the following events shall amount to an Event of Default or Default by Landlord under this Agreement:

(a) Failure of the Landlord to observe and perform any covenant, condition or agreement in this Lease on the part of the Landlord to be observed or performed within thirty (30) days after written notice specifying such failure and requesting that it be cured given to the Landlord by the Tenant, unless the Tenant shall agree in writing to an extension of such time prior to its expiration; provided, however, if such failure is such that it cannot be corrected within the applicable period, it shall not constitute an Event of Default if corrective action is instituted by Landlord within the applicable period and diligently pursued until the failure is corrected.

(b) The dissolution or liquidation of the Landlord or the filing by the Landlord of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or failure by the Landlord promptly to lift any execution, garnishment or attachment of such consequence as will impair the ability of the Tenant to carry on its operations at the Premises.

23. Remedies Cumulative; Non-Waiver: No remedy herein or otherwise conferred upon or reserved to Landlord or Tenant shall be considered exclusive of any other remedy, but the same shall be distinct, separate and cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder, or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity; and every power and remedy given by this Lease may be exercised from time to time as often as occasion may arise or as may be deemed expedient. No delay or omission of Landlord to exercise any right or power arising from any default on the part of Tenant shall impair any such right or power, or shall be construed to be a waiver of any such default, or an acquiescence therein. The acceptance of rent by Landlord with knowledge of a default by Tenant hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of such default.

24. Quiet Enjoyment: If Tenant shall pay the rent and perform and observe all of the other covenants and conditions to be performed and observed by it hereunder, Tenant shall at all times during the term hereof have the peaceable and quiet enjoyment of the Premises without interference from Landlord or any person lawfully claiming through Landlord.

25. Estoppel Certificate: Within ten (10) days after written request thereof by the Landlord or any mortgagee or trustee under a mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises, Tenant shall deliver in recordable form a statement to any mortgagee, trustee or other transferee, or to Landlord, certifying any facts that are then true with respect to this Lease, including without limitation (if such be the case), that this Lease is in full force and effect, that Tenant is in possession, that Tenant has commenced the payment of rent, and that Tenant claims no defense or set-off to the due and full performance of its obligations under this Lease.

26. Subordination and Attornment: Tenant agrees that this Lease shall be subject and subordinate to any mortgages now or hereafter placed upon the Premises and to all modifications thereto, and to all present and future advances made with respect to any such mortgage or deed of trust provided the mortgagee named in said mortgage shall agree in writing to recognize and not disturb Tenant's possession of the Premises under the terms of this Lease in the event of foreclosure. Tenant agrees to attorn to the mortgagee under any such mortgage, and to the purchaser at a sale pursuant to the foreclosure thereof.

27. Notices: All notices provided for in this Lease shall be in writing and shall be deemed to be given when sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, and addressed as follows:

If to the Landlord:

Notice shall also be sent to the holder or holders of any mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises at such address as such holder or holders may have given by notice as herein provided. Either party hereto, or any such holder, may from time to time, by notice as herein provided, designate a different address to which notices to it shall be sent.

28. Governing Law: This Lease shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

29. Successors: This Lease shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors and permitted assigns, except as otherwise provided for in this Lease.

30. Nature and Extent of Lease: This Lease, including the exhibits attached hereto, contains the complete agreement between the parties regarding the terms and conditions of the lease of the Premises, and there are no oral or written conditions, terms, warranties, understandings or other agreements pertaining thereto which have not been incorporated herein. This Lease may be modified only by written instrument duly executed by both parties or their respective successors in interest.

31. Holding Over: This Lease expires at the end of the term defined herein, but it is expressly understood that if Tenant holds over for another month at the end of said term for any purpose other than the removal of its property, and Landlord accepts rent for said month, such acceptance shall operate as a renewal of the tenancy for another month and for each additional month for which Landlord accepts rent. Should Landlord require possession of the Premises, it shall give Tenant thirty (30) days to vacate the said Premises during such holdover period. The monthly rental during the holdover period shall be one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the monthly rental payable for the last month of the term as set forth herein.

32. Environmental Matters. Tenant, at Tenant's expense, shall comply with all laws, rules, orders, ordinances, directions, regulations and requirements of federal, state, county and municipal authorities pertaining to Tenant's use of the Premises, regardless of when they become effective, including, without limitation, all applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations or ordinances pertaining to air and water quality, hazardous materials ("Hazardous Material"), waste disposal, air emissions and other environmental matters.

If the presence of Hazardous Material on the Premises caused or permitted by Tenant results in contamination of the Premises, or if contamination of the Premises by Hazardous Material otherwise occurs for which Tenant is legally liable to Landlord for damage resulting therefrom, then, to the extent permitted by law, Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless from any and all claims, judgments, damages, penalties, fines, costs, liabilities or losses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, which arise during or after the Lease Term as a result of such contamination.

33. Termination of the Master Lease. The parties agree that, in the event the Master Lease terminates, or in any way ceases to remain in full force and effect, during the Term of this Lease, the Landlord will automatically be released from any and all duties, obligations, or liabilities in any way relating to this Lease, and the Owner will act to preserve the general rights of the Tenant throughout the Term of this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to any such termination of the Master Lease, the Owner shall have no obligations to the Tenant, and the Tenant agrees to look solely to the Landlord for the fulfillment of any and all rights, duties, obligations, or liabilities in any way relating to this Lease, the Premises, or the Garage.

34. Sale of the Garage. This Lease shall in no way prohibit or in any way compromise the Owner's right to sell or otherwise convey the Garage. Upon any conveyance of the Garage by the Owner, the Owner shall be fully and immediately released from any and all duties, obligations, responsibilities, or liabilities relating to or arising from this Lease. Any conveyance of the Garage shall be subject to this Lease, and the person(s) or entity(ies) to whom the Garage is transferred ("Transferee") shall assume all duties, obligations, responsibilities, and liabilities of the Owner under this Lease as if the Transferee were originally named as the Owner herein.

35. Landlord's Assignment of Master Lease. This Lease shall in no way prohibit or in any way compromise the Landlord's right to assign its interest, as Lessee, under the Master Lease. Upon any transfer or assignment of its interest in the Master Lease, the Landlord shall be fully and immediately released from any and all duties, obligations, responsibilities, or liabilities relating to or arising from this Lease. Any transfer or assignment by the Landlord of its rights, as Lessee under the Master Lease, shall be subject to this Lease, and the person(s) or entity(ies) to whom the Landlord's interest is assigned ("Assignee") shall assume all duties, obligations, responsibilities, and liabilities of the Landlord under this Lease as if the Assignee were originally named as the Landlord herein.

36. Attorney's Fees. In the event either party is required to resort to legal process to enforce its rights under this Lease Agreement, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to the costs of enforcement, including reasonable attorney fees.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their respective Hands and Seals on the day and year first hereinabove written.
